

JOKE MASTER

As the Joke Master of the meeting your role is to give the group something to laugh about maybe for just that moment or maybe something for them to share with others throughout the day.

Log into Turbobase to view the theme of the meeting, do yourself a favor, and email the toastmaster to verify they are keeping that theme.

As the Joke Master you can share a joke you already know or check the web for something. Please keep all jokes clean of bad language, sex related or racial.

Here are a few URLs that may help in finding a joke.

Try to keep the joke between 1 – 2 minutes so the meeting agenda can stay on track. When called upon for your role, walk to the front of the room and begin your joke for the day.
